

Production Technical Services

Production is defined as various engineering technical measures taken during recovery process. Antonoil production technical services have professional ability of integrated oil & gas management, engaged in Oil reservoir production test services, Workover Technical Services, Oil Production Operation Technical Services, EPC project services etc. With optimized project design, excellent tools & equipment, specialized technical service team, Antonoil devotes itself to supplying safe, economic, efficient and superior oil & gas recovery project, production and service.

Scope of Services

- Production Operation Technical Services: well and station operation and maintenance services, oilfield surface equipment and facilities operation management, wellhead safety control system services, ESP technical services, heavy oil recovery technical services, profile control and water shut off services;
- Workover Technical Services: workover rig services, workover fluid services, workover and completion tools and technical services, workover and completion integrated services, technical consulting, design and field support;
- EPC Project Services: oil and gas field surface engineering services, water treatment, transmission and transformation project services, infrastructure construction services, field surface facility inspection and maintenance services;
- Oil Reservoir Production Test Services: flow back testing, DST services, slick-line services, production logging, PVT sampling.

Services Capability

- Owning international technical services qualification and first-class management standard system, and the globalization service ability;
- Owning international, multilingual, high-quality professional technical and management team;
- To provide clients with a full range of integrated production technical services.

Services Performance

- Services Markets are distributed in China, Iraq, Ethiopia, Sudan, Iran, Venezuela, Ecuador etc. Services Performance has gained good reputation among the owners;
- During over 10 years of oil production technology services, Workover integrated services have accumulatively accomplished 2300 well-times, services, well and station operation and maintenance services have lasted over 3300 days.

